POLICY FOR MINORS

Welcome to Fundacja Kultury I Edukacji Międzynarodowej IPW! We are delighted to have you with us. Your safety and well-being are of the utmost importance to us. We are committed to making you feel comfortable and confident with us, aware that we care about your well-being. Here are some points to make you feel comfortable with Us:

1. You are important to us! At Fundacja IPW you can meet many adults - these are the staff who are here to help you, support you, make you feel happy, and have a good time. If something is bothering you, making you sad or if someone is treating you badly, we want to know about it. You can always tell us about the problem.

2. Safe space. We have created rules to help us all feel comfortable here and safe. We respect each other, listen, and talk when something doesn't feel right. Remember that your feelings are important and deserve respect.

3. You have the right to be happy, safe and protected. If something is bothering you or you feel your boundaries are being crossed, it is important to report it. You have the right to be listened to.

4. No violence. No one can hurt you here, either physically, with words, or in any other way. If something like this happens, please inform us immediately.

5. Right to privacy. We are committed to keeping your personal information secure. Your information is protected and only available to those who have your and your parent's permission to do so.

6. Important telephones

- Emergency services: 112 - In any situation where your life or the life of someone else is in danger, immediate action is essential. Operators will direct your call to the relevant emergency services: police, ambulance, or fire brigade.
- Child and Youth Helpline: 116 111 - By calling this number you can talk about anything that concerns you.

7. Remember:

- You have the right to feel safe.
- If something is bothering you, tell an adult.
- Your feelings are important and deserve respect.

We are here to support you and ensure that your time at Fundacja IPW is a positive experience. If you have any questions or concerns, you can always approach us. We want you to feel at home here
